

CASTING CALL

FOR LEAD ROLES IN A FEATURE FILM

SEEKING:

[SPARROW] FEMALE, NATIVE AMERICAN & WHITE, 10 years old, beautiful, smart, sedate when she wants to be, fearless and fierce when she has to be. Sparrow is the daughter of Betty, who is Indigenous, and Kenny, who is White; both her parents are divorced and remarried, and all the relationships are tempestuous. Close to her older brother, Ryder, Sparrow instinctively understands her brother's innocence. Sparrow goes to her father Kenny's house with Ryder for their usual Christmas trip, hoping he'll respond to a letter she wrote him a few weeks ago about living with him and his wife, Connie. When Sparrow realizes that she can't count on help from any adult in her life, her rage and pain build inside her, until she can no longer keep them reined in...LEAD

[RYDER] MALE, NATIVE AMERICAN & WHITE, 11 years old, with long black hair and hyper-alert eyes, bright, nervous, struggles with almost constant stress allergies on his skin. Ryder is the son of Betty, who is Indigenous, and Kenny, who is White; both his parents are divorced and remarried, and all the relationships are tempestuous. Ryder and his younger sister Sparrow go to their father's house in West Texas for Christmas; Ryder is something of a people pleaser who can count on a bit of father-son bonding with his dad, and is shocked at Sparrow's escalating rebelliousness and rage. Once he learns about her dark secret, Ryder has a new level of anxiety, but also desperately wants to help his sister if he can...LEAD
